WASHINGTON.

YESTERDAYS PROCEEDINGS OF THE FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS

Copies of the Correspondence Between the United States and Great Britain Called For.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29th,—Blaine submitted a resolution calling on the President for copies of the correspondence between the United States and Great Britain relative to the alleged outrage upon American fishermen at Fortune Bay. Adopted: Bills were introduced and refered as follows: Morgan to enforce observance of the Constitution of the United States, in regard to the election of President and Vice-President of the United States; referred to select committee on that subject.

Davis, of West Virginia, presented a report of a majority of the Elect Committee appointed to investigate accounts of the Treasury Department.

Ingalls, of Kansas, presented a minority repore, Mr. Davis, in some remarks upon results of the committees' labors said the books of the Treasury Department showed many and great discrepancies, amounting in some years to nearly one hundred million dollars; most of them appeared in years between 1868 and 1871. In November 1870 the Register of the Treasury by order of the Secretary, changed figures and amounts, as previously reported to Congress, so as to adparently increase the public debt by ten million dollars; in 1873 there was a similar change of twenty millions, and in 1874, of seventy-five millions. In 1870 the figures of the Register and Secretary agree. Now they largely disagree. Testimony shows that three items amounting to $64,938,27 were added to the public debt by order of the Secretary when none of said three items appeared on the Treasury books. Comparaison of debt statements for 1869-'70 shows that the public debt instead of being decreased as it should have been by dropping of the Pacific Railroad bonded debt, was increased between ninety and one hundred millions. Erasures and alterations on the Treasury books amount to thousands, and affect hundreds of millions of dollars. Leaves are cut from the books and not accounted for and warrants for millions of dollars are missing and cannot be found.

HOUSE.

Under a call of the committees, Cox of New York, from the committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a bill for the appointment of a commission to ascertain and report a basis for the reciprocity of the treaty between the United States and the British Colonies to the House. Calendar.

Bills were reported from the Committee on Public Buildings, and referred to the Committee of the Whole, for erection of public buildings at Augusta, Ga., Greenville, S. C., Key West, Fla., Oxford, Miss., and Dallas, Graham, Jefferson, Tyler and Galveston, Texas.

Bills were also reported as follows: By Persons, of Georgia, from the Committee on Agriculture: Bill recommending the continuance of the United States Entomological Commission. By Robinson, of Mass., from Judiciary Committee, bill to divide the State of Louisiana into two Judicial Districts.

A resolution was adopted appropriating $3,000 to defray the expenses of the Committee on Mississippi Levees.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the bill amending the Internal Revenue laws, which was explained by Carlisle, of Kentucky. After disposing of ten of the eighteen sections of this bill, the Committee arose and the House took a recess. The evening session is to be for the consideration of the Municipal Code for the District of Columbia.

An Early Adjournment.

Washington Correspondence Richmond Dispatch.

There was a great deal of talk at both ends of the Capitol to day about adjournment, and leading senators expressed the belief that Congress can get through early in June. Mr. Blount, of the Ways and Means Committee, after conference with the patrons of leading measures now before Congress, thinks an adjournment can be reached by the middle of June. Mr. Randall has been doing all he could to get through early, and will renew his efforts after his return from Pennsylvania. The desire for an early adjournment is not confined to Democrats, as the Republicans are just as anxious to get away as their opponents.

The Queen's Appointments.

LONDON, April 29.—The Standard says Lord Beaconsfield took leave of the Queen yesterday. The Tailoway appointments were finally made. Duke of Argyle, Lord Privy seal; Earl of Kimberley, Secretary of State for Colonial Department; John Bright, Chancellor of Duchy, Lancaster; Marquis Ripan viceroy to India. He was offered viceroyalty either to Ireland or India. The report that Lord Derby was offered a seat in the Cabinent is untrue. The absence of advanced liberals has, after long negotiations, been met by conceding a seat in the Cabinet to Chamberlain, who will probably be President of the board of trade. Sir Charles Dilke accepts a position under the Secretary for foreign Departments, Earle Spencer will be Lord President of the Council instead of Duke of Argyle as reported yesterday. It is officially announced that the late Ministers will go to Windsor to-day by the 12.10 p. m. train, and new ministers by 11.10 train. Lord Cranbrook attended the India office for the last time yesterday. The Times states that Earl of Kenmore has been appointed Lord Great Chamberlain; Earl Sydney, Lord High Steward; Earl Cook, Master-Secter of Horse; Mr. Shaw Leffever, retary, to admiralty; Mr. W.P.Adam, Chief Commissioner of the works and buildings.

A School Girl Cruelly Beaten.

A teacher named Roads, at Reading, has been convicted of brutally beating a girl pupil, twelve years old, the daughter of Albert Grimley, a farmer of East township. A leaf had been torn out of a recitation book belonging to Roads, which had been used by several scholars. He accused this little girl of having done it, and when she denied it and called on God as her witness, the brute took a stick and beat her over the shoulders in a brutal manner, for what he termed her blasphemy, while holding her by the hand. The little one tried to creep under the desk to escape the blows, but her efforts were unavailing, and not until terrible welts, though which the blood oozed, had been left on her arms and shoulders did he desist his devilish work. The child was taken sick after the beating, being unable to leave her bed, and is maimed for life.

An Expert's Story of the Storm in the West.

Prof. John H. Tice, the well known meteorologist, who went to Marshfield to investigate the phenomena connected with the storm. telegraphs the St. Louis Republican as follows;

"Every where along the track of the tornado there is evivdence of a wave of water flowing in the rear of the cloud spouts. At some places there are only faint traces of such a wave. At others the debris is carried up and over obstructions two or three feet high. These waves or currents flowed in the greatest volume up hills. There are places where the entire top soil is washed away by the current. Fibrous roots and tufts of grass show their direction to have been up hill, what is more significant, from all points of the compass towards the top of the hill when the tornado was raging at the time and expending its force. No trace at any point can be found where they flowed down hill. Many level places are swept clean of soil. Leaves, grass, debris of wrecked buildings and fragment of planks carried along by the current and left in its track arranged themselves longitudinally to the current.

"The following is vouched for by George Gilbert of this place. He and his wife and four children were on a visit eight miles in the country, and the centre af the tornado passed within five or six yards from where they were. A wave of water, apparently fifteen feet high, rolled in the rear of the point of contract of the cloud spout with the earth It rolled over them in a second, and was icy cold, drenching them thoroughly. About two miles northeast of the town, stones weighing from five to seven hundred pounds were lifted out of the earth and carried along some distance in the track of the tornado.

"J. H. Williams, Presiding Justice of the Country Court and reesding in Panther Creek Valley, tells me a stone fell in the centre of a field belonging to H. Rose, the weight of which was estimated at two tons. It is not known from whence it came.

The tornado, so far as is known commenced in Arkansas, in Stone county. In Crow Creeksettlement ten persons were killed and on Flat Creek six persons were killed.

WHAT CAN IT BE.

Jane C. Simpson.

He never speaks of love, but oft his eyes,
With quiet earnest meanings rest on me,
While a chance meeting seems a glad surprise—
Oh! if it be not love, what can it be?

Sometimes he silent sits, when if I speak,
The quick response comes low thrillingly,
He reads my thought instinctive on my cheek—
Oh! if it be not love, what can it be?

Searching my soul he claims it joy to find,
Tastes, feelings, hopes, all with his own agree,
And asks what more heart unto heart can bind—
Oh! if be net love, what can it be?

Last eve when Maude swept by with queenly air,
The jewels flashing on her forehead free,
"Sweeter," he said," the wild rose in your hair"
Oh! if it be not love, what can it be?

As by a shining gate, at twilight dim,
I sit and wait until he turns the key,
When will he ope? If 'tis not love with him,
Oh! my sick heart, 'tis life or death with me!

America Still Ahead.

The New York Times tells the following story illustrative of the sharpness of American women as matchmakers: American mothers have acquired no little reputation abroad for skill in connubial management on behalf of their daughters. They are not generally, we imagine, more inclined to management of this sort then mothers of other nationalities; but some of them display so remarkable a talent for settling their girls advantageously that they have made a name for their, entire tribe. A Paris newspaper gives a recent instance of the great success of an American mamma of the peculiar order. Her eldest daughter had sailed from New York with some friends for a tour of Europe, and, after doing the Continent had returned to the French capital for several months of rest and pleasuring. Attractive and clever, she had many suitors, some more, some less desirable. She could not marry them all, so she adroitly reduced the number to two—the best of the lot, of course. Then she wrote the fact to her mamma, adding that they were both so handsome, agreeable, well-connected and rich that she could not decide between them, and closed with the question, "What shall I do?" Ten days later she received a cablegram from mamma, "I sail to-morrow. Hold both till I come." The next transatlantic steamer carried Mrs.—With her younger daughter, turned 18 and just out of school. On arrival she immediately took the helm of affairs, and steered so deftly through the dangerous waters, that in a few weeks she reached port with all the colors flying. To drop metaphor, she attended the wedding of her two daughters at the American chapel the same morning After due examination, she had decided that neither of the nice fellows should go out of the family.

Sitting Bull's Reinforcement.

Washington Star,

Officers on duty at the War department do not discredit the report that Sitting Bull has affected an alliance with the Indian tribes known as Black feet, River Crows and Mountain Crows. It has been the policy of the military authorities to keep themselves posted about Sitting Bull's movements, and to keep the troops in the northwest disposed so as to be ready to head his band off if they attempted any raid on United States soil. The indications, from informations received, are that Sitting Bull has been quietly reinforced his forces, arms and ammunition, with a view to a spring raid. The United States government has, despite the efforts of the British and Canadian authorities, adhered to its original position when Sitting Bull crossed the line, which is that when Canada gave him a place of refuge she became responsible for him, If he should despend upon the frontier settlements and cause damage, there would be another case of Alabama claims.

The Czar's bedroom in the Winter Palace, it is said, communicates by a subterranean gallery with the Fortress of Sts. Peter and Paul, so that, in case of need, he may reach the fortress in a few minutes and be in perfect safety. The room of Emperor Paul I. was provided with a similar secret passage, but he was not quick enough for his assassins, who murdered him on the threshold of the passage.

OUR CHARLOTTE LETTER.

MECKLENBURG'S POLITICAL NOTES AND CURRENT NEWS.

Dr. Worth's Friends Sorry—The Lieutenant Governor—Mr. Brown for Senate and Other News.

From Charlotte Correspondent.

CHARLOTTE N. C. April 27, 1880,—Dr. J. M. Worth, the present State Treasurer, has a good many warm and strong friends up here in Mecklenburg, who are really put out by the announcement of so many correspondents and editors that he will not allow his name to go before the Convention for Governor. His most zealous friends insist that this is all a ruse in favor of other candidates, and declare that his name will go before that body, and "go with a vim," to the terror of more than one Gubernatorial aspirant, but the more steady of his supporters admit that they believe he will not be a candidate for Govornor, and at the same time grieve over that deplorable (?) fact. On the other hand many assert the Dr. is wise enough to know on which side his bread is buttered, and will be content with a re-nomination by the Convention for State Treasurer. One thing is certain the Worth, "boom" is gradually becoming a fraction less "boomy," and unless it becomes understood upon anthotity that he will run will soon be a thing of the past.

Every candidate in the field will, I think, get his quota of this Worth party, but Scales will come in for the lion's share. That gentleman grows stronger and stronger every day, but there are so many changes in candidates and opinions going on that it would be a rather risky business to put your money on any horse so long before the races. There are a good many backers of the Jarvis filly who are ready and willing to risk their money on its coming in a length ahead, but cannot exactly catch the admirers of the Fowle gelding and the other entries, in a betting mood, so to speak. It is perfectly clear to your correspondent's mind that no one, however sage he may be in campaigns, cared with any degree of truth, state who will carry Mecklenburg's delegation.

The Lieutenant-Governor question is placed by the sages on something like this basis: If Jarvis is nominated for Governor, the second place will be filled by either Holt or Robinson, most likely Robinson; if Fowle, either Robinson, Clark or Holt, most likely Holt; if Worth, either Holt or Clark, most likely Clark; if Scales, either Robinson or Clark, most probbaly latter; if McKoy, either Robinson or Holt, or Clark, or-,or-, most probably one or the other, and and really I think so myself, don't you?

The Observer of Sunday came out in an eloquent and enthusiastic Jarvis leader Bro. Jones highly praises that gentleman's action in relation to the W. N. C. R. R., denies that he obtained the second position on the ticket of 1876 from Gen. Cox, by other than fair means and strongly urges and advocates his re-election.

The Concord Register of the 24th inst. strongly resembles a Jarvis campaign circular. It is undoubtedly for Jarvis first, last and forever, and so is Cabarrus.

Col. John L. Brown, member of our present House, has been nominated as a candidate for Senator from Mecklenburg. He is a strong man, but it is pretty generally conceded that if Senator Alexander presents himself for renomination he will have a "walk over."

Our Congressional race is increasing in interest each day and bids fair to be a little spirited. The last Gastonia Gazette says: "Maj. Wm. A. Graham, of Lincoln county, will give Col. Johnson, of Mecklenburg, no little trouble in securing the Democratic nomination for Congress in the 6th district.

NEWS ITEMS.

Our municipal election comes off next Monday, 3rd of May.

Maj. C. Dowd will be the orator of the day at the 20th of May celebration.

This year will be one of the grandest of crop years in this section. It is almost impossible to find a farmer on our streets. The weather is fine and they are busy tilling and sowing.

At an election held last evening Mr. C. F. Harrison, the present efficient chief of the Charlotte Fire Department was re-elected.

The Sunday school of the Baptist church and the Hornet's Nest Riflemen will have a joint excursion on May 5th. It has been decided to go to Greenville and arrangements will be made to allow excursionists, who wish to do so, to remain over all night and return to Charlotte next morning.

George Galloway has been respited and will not be hung until July 2d.

Mr. F. 3. Butt, advance agent for his brother's (Arthur L. Butt, of this city) panorama has been in the city a day or so. He reports much success wherever they have been. They will show in Nashville during the Nashville centennial.

A four-year old child of Mr. James Grissom, head weaver at the Mountain Island Factory, was drowned in the factory canal a few days since.

The trains on nearly all of the railroads leading into Charlotte have been coming in very irregularly for two or three days past. Wash-outs, delays, and break-downs seem to be numerous enough.

The weather up here has been exceedingly fine for some days past but terribly warm for this season of the year.

The remains of Mrs. Mary McPhail, wife of the late Dr. McPhail, passed through this city yesterday en route to Davidson College, to be interred by the side of those of her husband. Dr. McPhail was for many years president of Davidson College.

Mr. C. E. Robinson, of the N. Y. and N. C. Smelting Co., has gone to New York to arrange for more machinery for his works. They will begin operations as soon as he returns. The company has been delayed in its operations heretofore by some mistake in shipment of former machinery.

A mass meeting of the citizen Democrats was held at the court house on st evening for the purpose of appointang a Democratic Executive Committee lir the city of Charlotte. A committee fo thirteen was appointed, three from each ward, having as its chairman Capt. J. Roessler. It is thought that this committee will work vigorously and promptly, and place the Democratic party fairly and squarely in the field by putting its standard in the hands of one man and cutting off some fifteen or twenty superfluous aspirants.

From Buncombe.

ASHEVILLE, April 26th.—There are quite a number of strangers in town. Almost every house in the village that is accustomed to receiving summer boarders, has some already. The Eagle Hotel is said to be full, and the Swannanoa which will probably open this week, will no doubt be full before it is long open.

Great fears are entertained that accommodation will not be sufficient for the number of people that will be here. Col. Best and his posse arrived in town last Thursday and left on Friday. One of the number accompanied by Col. Thad Coleman went prospecting in the direction of Ducktown.

The convicts who are still working under the guidance of the State, seem to be doing a good work. On last Friday I visited the stockade and works at the Swannanoa bridge, and was very much pleased with what I saw as regards the deportment of the convicts and the manner of their treatment which I saw. I however noticed one poor fellow confined in his dungeon whom it is a shame the Governor does not pardon. The crime for which he was sentenced there was larceny. While really I do not the man accountable, he has, it is said, some times as many as twenty epileptic fits here a day. He had one attack during the few moments that I saw him, and a more violent attack I never witnessed. On Thursday last one convict lately confined there from Madison county made his escape. He ran right through an open field for a distance of three hundred yards, although one dosen shots were fired at him, so far as known he was never touched.

The Asheville Female College has lately received an accession in the way of twelve Indian girls. They are quite a curiosity and attract, if possible, the gaze of more eyes than do the college inmates of the pale race.

One week from to-day we have a municipal election. A ticket is to be gotten out this week.

J. L. SCOTT, Pres., pro tem,
D. A. LONG, Sec'y.

Georgs Stewart, a young man of Cincinnati, whose wife had deserted him because he loved whisky better than her, made a desperate attempt at suicide on Monday night. He fired no less than five balls into his head, but the smallness of the pistol, combined with the thickness of his skull, defeated his desperate design. Two of the balls were found flattened against his skull. The others have been probed for, but have not been extracted. As he retains his senses, the injuries are supposed not to be serious.

A Touching Story.

Hon. A. H. Stephens, of Georgia, in an address delivered in 1846 at a meeting in Alexandria for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum and Free School of that city, related the following anecdote: "A poor little boy, in a cold night in June, with no home or roof to shelter his head, no paternal or maternal guardian or guard to protect and direct him on his way, reached at night fall the house of a rich planter, who took him in, fed, lodged and sent him on his way with his blessing. These kind attentions cheered his heart and inspired him with fresh courage to battle with the obstacles of life. Years rolled round; Providence led him on; he had reached the legal profession; his host had died; the cormorants that prey upon the substance of man had formed a conspiracy to get from the widow her estates. She sent for the nearest counsel to commit her cause to him, and that counsel proved to be the orphan boy years before welcomed and entertained by her and her deceased husband. The stimulus of a warm and tenacious gratitude was now added to the ordinary motives connected with the profession. He undertook her cause with a will not easily to be resisted; he gained it; the widow's estates were secured to her in perpetuity; and Mr. Stephens added, with an emphasis of emotion that sent its electric thrill throughout the house, "that orphan boy now stands before you!"

SOME FURTHER ACCOUNTS OF HIS ADMINISTRATION

Banished Blaine—Bishop Beecher—Gen. B. T. Butlers Allegiance—Beauregard in Command of the South.

Albany (N. Y.) Evening Press.

A short time since the Evening Times gave some extracts from an anonymous pamphlet recently published, entitled "The Coming Crown." Following is another instalment:

From the Imperial Standard, Washington, October. 1 1882.

An official telegram, published elsewhere in this issue, brings intelligence of the trial and conviction, by military commission, of James G. Blaine, of Maine, and the sentence of banishment passed by the commission will in all probability be approved by his Imperial Majesty. We think the commission erred in its decision—not as to the guilt, but as to the punishment of the offender. The time has passed for measures of mercy. Justice demands something more. It demands stern retribution for such offenses as this man Blaine has committed, and the punishment awarded should have been death! Let there be no trifling with traitors!

EXECUTION OF THOMAS NAST.

By Imperial Telegraph to the Standard.

NEW YORK, September 30.—The last of the eighteen prisoners condemned to death by the Imperial Military Commission which closed its sittings at Governor's island on the 20th, was executed at daybreak this morning. The condemned man, Thomas Nast, who was a caricucaturist on Harper's Weekly before that disloyal sheet was suppressed in June last, was accused of high treason by plotting against the crown and dignity of his Imperial Majesty and by circulating a socalled caricoon representing his Imperial Majesty as Nero. The execution was private, but it is understood that the death was painful, the wretched traitor's life not being extinct for several minutes.

SIR ALEX. SHEPPARD, COURT CHAMBERLAIN.

Sir Alexander Sheppard has we are glad to announce, been again signally honored by his imperial Majesty. An imperial decree issued yesterday appointing him to the responsible and lucrative position of Court Chamberlain. We understand that his Imperial Majesty has been graciously pleased to direct that a salary of $30,000 per annum be fixed as the emoluments of this honorable office.

Kearney was hanged at San Francico on the morning of September 30, '82. Business is now reviving on the Pacific coast and Chinatown is loyal to the empire.

The Imperial army, including all the arms of service (standing) is to be 400,000 men.

IMPERIAL CHAPLAIN BEECHER.

The Right Rev. Henry Ward Beecher Bishop of Brooklyn, whose conversion to the Methodist Episcopal Church was simultaneous with his Imperial Majesty's accession to the throne, arrived at the palace yesterday. His Lordship will enter on his duties as Imperial Chaplain without delay, and will preach before the imperial family at the M. E. Cathedral on Sunday next.

THE GODDESS OF LIBERTY DEPOSED.

The old figure of liberty, which surmounted the dome of the capitol here has been taken down and a colossal statue of his Imperial Majesty, the Emperor Ulysses I., is to replace it. The statue will be of bronze, and is after a design furnished by Mills. The figure will be surmounted by a crown, which will at night be illuminated by the electric light, and thus be visible for nearly fifty miles.

LORD SNOWDEN AND THE IMPERIAL COIN.

Work is being vigorously pushed forward at the new mint in this city replacing the old Union coinage with that of the Empire. The coin bears the bust of his Imperial Majesty, surrounded by the legend, "Ulysses I., Emperor," with the date "1882," while on the obverse surrounding the Imperial arms—the mailed hand—is the Latin inscription, "Aut Cæsar aut nullus," a translation of the memorable words uttered by His Imperial Majesty when he ascended the throne.

BUTLER LATE IN IMPERIAL ALLEGIANCE.

We are gratified to be in a position to state that General B. F. Butler, of Massachusetts, has at last taken the oath of allegiance to his Imperial Majesty, and we are reliably informed that it is the intention of the Imperial Government to place the gallant General in a position where his conceded abilities will be of service to the Empire. General Butler will arrive at the capital on the 5th inst.

IMPERIAL COMMANDER BEAUREGARD.

Major General Beauragard, commanding the division of the South, gave a grand banquet to a number of the resident aristocracy of Mobile last week. The recognition of Gen. Beauregard by his Imperial Majesty, and his appointment by the Imperial order to the important command he now holds, created, it will be remembered, great enthusiasm in the South. Gen. Beauregard, in proposing the health of his Imperial Majesty, hoped that Southern society would always be loyal to the Emperor—a sentiment which was drank with repeated cheers.

PLOTTING TREASON.

As we go to press we learn that dispatches have just been received by the Minister of War to the effect that several officers of the Imperial service, who have been for some time suspected of plotting treason and of being in correspondence with the enemies of his Imperial Majesty, were placed in arrest at Albany, N. Y., last week. This arrest was kept secret, but an investigation left no doubt of the existence of a dangerous plot to overturn the Imperial Government, and at a subsequent court-martial, which finished its sittings yesterday, five of the officers were found guilty on all the charges preferred against them. They will be shot at daybreak to-morrow morning.

The President a Relic Hunter.

The President is a great relic hunter, and is making additions to his Ohio home at Fremont so that he can accommodate the collection which he is adding to as fast as he finds objects worthy of preservation. When he was last in Philadelphia he heard that there was an original portrait of Washington, painted by Stuart, which the owner was willing to part with. The President found the painting in a rather dilapidated condition, and consulted connoisseurs as to the probability of its being restored. At first it was thought that it could be transferred to fresh canvas, but upon examination it was found that this had once been done. The restoration was finally accomplished by an artist, who carefully and skillfully filled up the cracks with paint, and put a glass over the picture, which hangs at the head of the staircase in the upper hall at the White House. It is now one of the most beautiful of all the portraits of Washington, and Mr. Hayes is very happy over its acquisition.

Theory vs. Facts.

All established theories are set aside by solid facts. The solid facts in this case are, that the business interests of our fair city have been more greatly enhanced within the past year by one single enterprise, conducted by one single mind, than by all other productive institutions in Rochester. We refer to the manufacture of Hop Bitters. The remedial properties of hops, with the herbs introduced, principally buchu, mandrake and dandelion, had long been known, but there had been so much mere stuff—aye, deleterious stuff—foisted upon the country, under the general cognomen of "bitters" and "remedies," that this medicine, which had been perfecting under the experiments of skilled pharmaceutists, and chemists, had to overcome the distrust of all such "remedies" by the slow process of information, which has been so successfully done that to-day the druggist who does not embrace Hop Bitters in the list of his regularly ordered medicines, or the family that does not know its beneficial effects would be difficult to find.

THE MANUFACTORY

is located on Mill street, from which emanates the preparation that is daily shipped to all parts of this country, and to sections of the globe over which the American flag does not float. The business is splendidly systematized, and everything goes on so quietly that it would be difficult to imagine that so extensive a business was done in that locality. Each department is overseen by competent persons. The items for bottles and for packing-boxes are enormously surprising, and those who furnish these two articles alone have reason to rejoice at the discovery of Hop Bitters, while the myriads of sick people who have been cured by this invaluable remedy have greater reason to rejoice.—Rochester Evening Press.

Mere Facts.

Sterling, Ill., August 22, 1879.

We feel that we must write something of the success of Hop Bitters. Their sale is treble that of any other article of medicine. Hence we feel it but justice to you and your Bitters to say that it is a medicine of real merit and virtue, and doing much good and effecting great cures. Yours,

J. F. & H. B. UTLEY.

Hayesville, Ohio, Feb. 11, 1880.

I am very glad to say I have tried Hop Bitters, and never took anything that did me so much good. I only took two bottles and I would not take $100 for the good they did me. I recommend them to my patients, and get the best of results from their use.

To the Hop Bitters Manufacturing Co.:

Gents—I desire to express to you my thanks for your wonderful Hop Bitters. I was troubled with dyspepsia for five years previous to commencing the use of your Hop Bitters some six months ago. My cure has been wonderful. I am pastor of First Methodist Church of this place, and my whole congregation can testify to the great virture of your bitters.

Very respectfully,

REV. H. FERREBEE.

Silver Creek N. Y., Feb. 6. 1880

Gents—I have been very low, and have tried everything, to no advantage. I heard your Hop Bitters recommended by so many. I concluded to give them a trial. I did, and, now am around, and constantly improving, and am nearly as strong as ever.

W. H. WELLER.

Many vile compounds have been sold under the name of "Bitters," but it is a comfort for the afflicted to now realize that with Hop Bitters at their command they can be cured.—San Francisco (Cal.) Chronicle.

If Lord Byron, Shakespeare, Tennyson or Longfellow, all of them were to write, they could not invent praises or use adjectives of sufficient philological signification, nor language strong enough to express the wonderful power of Hop Bitters to cure the sick. This medicine is now so widely known as the best and purest bitters manufactured that is perhaps superfluous to write about it. It is justly popular.—Oswego Sun.

that the otherwise beautiful girl should have had such bad teeth. And all because she did not use SOZODONT. It costs so little to buy it considering the good it does, and its benefits stretch out into her future life. Poor girl!

DeYOUNG'S MURDERER.

THE REV. I. M. KALLOCH IS A BAPTIST MINISTER.

A Strong Affection between Father and Son and Likewise a Strong Love for Brandy.

The murderer, the Rev. Isaac M. Kalloch, is the oldest of four children, and is twenty-eight years of age. He was born in Rockland, Me., very soon after the expulsion of his father from Waterville College, his very hasty marriage, and his settlement as pastor of the First Baptist church of Rockland.

After Kalloch abandoned Kansas and settled in San Francisco his son studied at the University of California, a Baptist institution. Young Kalloch was ordained a Baptist clergyman about four years ago, and accepted a call from a small society in one of the suburbs of San Francisco. He remained there only a short time, resigning to take the pulpit of the First Baptist church of Oakland, a position which he held for a year and a half. At the time of the shooting of his father by DeYoung he was preaching in Sonoma county. He resigned his charge a few weeks after this event and went to San Francisco, where he has since been acting assistant to his father in Metropolitan Temple, having received the appointment by a unanimous vote of the trustees. There was the strongest affection existing between him and his father, and for that matter all four of the children, fairly idolized their father. The elder Kalloch's love for liquor, and especially for brandy, was well known, and his drinking exploits when a boy at Rockland, a clergyman in Boston, and a pastor in this city, are a matter of record. His son Isaac inherited his taste for liquor, and his associations for the past few months have been such as to encourage undue indulgence to a marked degree.

DE YOUNG' THIRTY-FIVE YEARS.

Charles De Young, who was shot and killed in his own newspaper office Friday evening by young Kalloch, the son of San Francisco's mayor, was only thirty-five years of age.

In appearance DeYoung was a boy with the bearing of a man. He was two years older then his brother, Michael H. DeYoung, commonly known as "Harry," but he looked at least ten years younger. He was rather short and of medium figure, and always dressed in black, wearing a carefully-brushed silk hat. His eyes were black and thoughtful rather than piercing, and he wore a black moustache and black sidewhiskers. The energy of his nature was illustrated in his walk, which was quick and spasmodic. He was never resting except when in his bed, and late to bed and early to rise was the rule of his life. He was always neatly dressed, and if he had a weakness at all it was vanity with regard to his personal appearance. He was born in Natchitoches, La., in 1845. His father's name was plain Michael Young and Charles was known by this name until he established the Chronicle when he added the De to his name, and since then the family have all been known as the De Youngs. DeYoung was of Jewish extraction.

Before buying a sewing machine be sure to always ask if it has a steel cam, and if the salesman says that it has, just ask him to take off the front plate and prove it. The New Home is the only machine that has a steel cam.

DAILY NEWS

THURSDAY, APRIL 29, 1880.

GEO. C JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r

A NUMBER of gentlemen in Missouri, calling themselves anti third-term Republicans, have united in signing a paper pledging themselves, first, to prevent if possible the nomination for President of any man who has occupied the office for more than one term before, and, second, not to support such a nominee if placed in the field.

CONKLING DECLARES against Washburne on any terms, and that probably disposes of Washburne's candidacy. The Republican party will not be likely to risk a candidate against whom Mr. Conkling avows an implacable hostility. This is a contemptible position for a party to be in, but it's a rather contemptible party anyhow.

IT IS not generally known that ex-United States Senator Pomeroy of Kansas, is now living in Franklin county, N. C., engaged in mining for gold at the Portis gold mine. He was twelve years in the United States Senate from Kansas, and was only defeated for a third term by an exposure at bribery. He is the original of Mark Twain's "Senator Dilworthy," the patron of Colonel Mulberry Sellers. He says he likes North Carolina, and intends to make it his permanent home.

A SERIOUS division is likely to occur in the house of Bonaparte. Prince Napoleon's recent letter in favor of the anti-Jesuit decrees has not been well received by the family, and even his wife, Princess Colothilde, is in open rebellion against him. She has written a letter to her son Victor, urging him to turn back on the teachings and opinions of his father, and hinting that in such event the ex-Empress will porvide him with a seperate establishment. Prince Victor, it will be remembered, was designated by the Prince Imperial as his heir, and it is probable that Eugenie could be easily persued to recognize him as the head of the Bonapartists, especially since the impolitic course of Prince Napoleon towards the religious bodies of which she, as well as Princess Colthild, is a zealous supporter. Under all the circumstances it will be readily believed that the letter to Victor Napoleon has caused intense excitement among the Bonapartists in France.

THE Nation, in reply to the Albany Law Journal, brings out even more forcibly than before the point illustrated in its own article on the Civil Rights cases. The point on which the suppositious Massachusetts case is "that a "State judge who, following a statute of "his own State, sustains a panel summoned in conformity with such statute "can be indicted and imprisoned for his "erroneous ruling. The only way, it "used to be thought, of reviewing an erroneous decision in such cases was by "writ of error, by a writ for the removal "of the case to a Federal court, or, it "might be, by a writ of habeas corpus. "Cole's case is the first in which it was "ever held that a judge is liable to indictment for a ruling not alleged to be corrupt; and if Judge Cole is so indictable, "there is no State judge who may not be "proceeded against in the same way "should he hold a State statute imposing "discriminaitions of any kind (even discriminations against queues) to be "operative." Perhaps as these illustrations come from the North they will be heeded. When Southern newspapers showed the length to which the recent decisions went, their warning was regarded as conclusive evidence of a "rebellious" spirit.

Visit of the King of Siam.

At the Cabinet meeting on Friday last Secretary Evarts read a dispatch from the United States Consul at Bangkok, Siam, stating that the King of that country would leave the latter part of the present month for a tour through Europe and the United States. He will come by way of the Suez canal, and first visit Austria. He would then visit most of the other countries on the continent and also England. From England he will sail for the United States, arriving here in July. The Consul urges that preparations be made to properly receive Siam's ruler, and that he be treated with the utmost consideration, as it is important to American trade and our eastern interests that he should be. The matter will be refered to Congress to allow that body to decide if an appropriation shall be made for the entertainment of the royal visitor, as was done when Japanese embassy and King Kalakaua visited the United States. It was also proposed that the United States man-of-war be sent to bring him over. The King will have with him a large retinue of servants, his prime minister, four of his half-brothers, and they will all have large numbers of servants. It was considered doubtful if a man-of-war could properly accommodate them. While the question was not decided, it is likely that the King and as many of his party as can be accommodated will be brought over in a man-of-war.

An Obvious Fact.

Free Lance.

We have been spending too much and too many of the taxes collected from the people for railroads and expensive public institutions, which should go towards giving the poor children of the State the benefit of school facilities. Too much money has been expended upon the Western North Carolina railroad, and since that incubus has been removed we may now hope to see a new impulse given to the cause of education throughout the State. The money taken from each county for that road will go far towards giving us the schools in each district required by the constitution.

Pennsylvania Democratic State Convention.

HARRISBURG, April 29.—The Democratic State Convention met in the Opera House. All hope of a compromise between the contending Philadelphia or Wallace and Randall delegations are at an end. Matters were very lively all the morning in the hotels and committee rooms. Great difficulty is experienced in gaining admission to the hall of the convention, and a large number of special doorkeepers were on hand. The Randall people appear to have thorough control of all entrances to the hall, and many visitors received their tickets of admission before those of delegates were issued. So strict were the doorkeepers that it was impossible for telegraph messengers to pass in and out, and great difficulty experienced in reaching the telegraph office. When Speaker Randall entered the hall he was greeted with the most enthusiastic cheering. He had not been elected a delegate, but appeared as a substitute. Senator Wallace was also present as a delegate.

An Arkansas Wedding.

It is not intended that some men shall marry peacefully. Bill Skittles lives in South Arkansas. For the past six months he has been studying for the ministry, and it occurred to Bill several days ago that just before instituting a revival it would be a good idea to get married. He mentioned the subject to a young lady, and asked her to share ministerial melancholy and hilarity, but the young lady said she had promised to marry Zeb Monk, the professional well cleaner of the neighborhood. "Oh, well," said the minister, "I am pretty well acquainted with Zeb, and I don't believe he'd kick."

The young lady finally agreed, and the wedding day was fixed. Grand preparations were made. The girl's brothers had caught a couple of 'possums and the old lady had baked an immense sweet potato pie. The justice of the peace arrived. The justice proceeded with the ceremony, when Zeb Monk walked in and demanded: "Let up thar boss. Say, cap'n, turn that gal looose." "I reckon I won't," replied Bill. "Well, then," said Zeb, drawing his revolver, and smiling, "I'll kinder resort to extremities." "See here," remarked Bill, "are you in yearnest about this thing?" "I reckon I am." "Do you mean hog's head and turnip greens?" "I reckon I do," "Right down to corn bread and cabbages?" "I reckon it is." "Well then, you may take the gal. It was only sweet milk and pie with me, I'm in fun, I had a new pair of trousers and didn't know what to do with them. Come a little closer. It's spar ribs and backbones?" "I reckon it is." "Then I know the gal's yourn," and with a slight change in the license, the marriage proceeded.

Andrew Jackson and His Old Horse.

Rev. H. M. Cryer's Reminiscences.

Though Duke grew feeble and almost helpless in his latter days, he was not forgotten or suffered to be neglected. I have, in a walk with the General, more than once gone to the lot which contained this living wreck of martial valor, and, while the old creature would reel and stagger, looking wistfully at his master, the General would sighingly say: "Ah, poor fellow, we have seen hard times together; we must shortly separate; your days of suffering and toil are well-nigh ended." On one occasion, to try the General on a tender point, the writer of this article suggested the idea of putting an end to the sufferings of Duke by having him shot or knocked on the head. "No," said his generous master, "never, never; let him live, and while there is anything to go upon this farm Duke shall have a part."

The Telephone Between Charlotte and Greenville.

Charlotte Democrat.

The telephone in the McSmith music house in this city was connected with the one in the McSmith house in Greenville last Sunday and conversation attempted. The Greenville people could hear what the Charlotte people said but it did not work so well from the other end. An occasional word could be heard here, but their answers had to be telegraphed. The reason was that the batteries at Greenville were not sufficiently powerful. It will be tried over again next Sunday with, it is hoped, better success. The experiment is a step toward a connection which it is hoped to make between Charlotte and Atlanta as a link in the telephonic system on the great through routs.

Cuticura

ave Achieved the most noted success of any Medicines of Modern Times.

Messrs. Weeks & Potter have never doubted the specific properties of Cuticura, Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura Soap, for the speedy, permanent, and economical cure of Humors of the Blood, Skin and Scalp. They are however, astonished at their universal success; for it was to be expected that in the hands of some they would fail solely from spasmodic or ignorant use of them

They are enabled to say without fear of contradiction that no remedies ever achieved in the short space of one year the number of wonderful cures performed by the CUTICURA REMEDIES.

SALT RHEUM,

Covering the Body for Ten Years, Permanently Cured.

LAW OFFICE OF CHAS. HOUGHTON,
17 Congress Street, Boston, Feb. 2d, 1878.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—I feel it a duty to inform you, and through you all who are interested to know the fact, that a most disagreeable and obstinate case Salt Rheum or Eczema, which has been under my personal observation from its first appearance to the present time,—about ten (10) years,—covering the greater portion of the patient's body, and limbs with its peculiar irritation and itching scab, and to which all the known methods of treating such disease has been applied without benefit, has completely disappeared, leaving a clean and healthy skin, under a few days of profuse application of CUTICURA.

I can and do heartily advise all similarly afflicted to try the remedy which has been so effectual in this case.

Very truly yours,
CHAS. HOUGHTON.

Liver Complaint.

And Dyspepsia Treated by the Resolvent, Gains 5 1-2 pounds on One Bottle.

GENTLEMEN,—I have had Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, with running sores on the side of my neck, for ten years. Doctors did me no good. I have been spending for eight years and it did me no good. Everything I ate distressed me. I got reduced from 159 to 132 pounds. At last I tried the RESOLVENT and it helped me right off, and on one bottle I gained five and one-half pounds. It is doing the business, and I am going for it strong. Yours truly,

JOHN H. ROY
411 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill., Nov. 15, 1878.

NOTE.—Cuticura is admirable assisted in cases of extreme physical weakness, or when the virus of Scrofula is known to lurk in the system, by the internal use of the Cuticura Resolvent, without doubt the most powerful blood purifier and liver stimulant in the world.

Cuticura Soap is an elegant toilet and medicinal assistant to Cuticura in the treatment of all external ailments. For chapped hands, rough skin and tan, sunburn, and the lesser skin troubles, it is indispensable; as a soap for the toilet, the nursery and bath it is the most elegant, refreshing, and healing before the public.

These great remedies succeed where all others heretofore in use fail because they possess new and original properties never before successfully combined in medicine. The Cuticura Remedies are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, Boston. And sold by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, containing two and one-half times the quantity of small, $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

STARVATION IN IRELAND. No fear of that while we offer the present inducement. Agents can make $20 weekly, and it will be their own fault if they do not clear $50.

——Red headed Raleigh girls who desire to get married should go out to Arizona. It is said that there are three men to one woman in that territory.

——"Honesty is the best policy," but as the world wags nowadaya it is no small matter to earn money enough to pay the premium.

——'Digby, will you take some of this butter?' 'Thank you, ma'am, I belong to the temperance society—can't take anything,' strong replied Digby.

Merit Recognized.

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce says: "Mr. John W. Moore has engaged in a work (History of N. C.) which ought to be done equally well for every State in the Union. He puts into one volume the eventful history of North Carolina from its discovery down to 1874. The record both in the matter given and the manner of telling, is one of which North Carolina should be proud. A second volume, we suppose will complete the undertaking. The book bears the names of Uzzell & Wiley, Printers and Binders, and is highly creditable to their taste and skill. Alfred Williams & Co. Raleigh, Publishers.

Reward of Merit.

The U. S. Government has given not only to Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, but to his Special Flavoring Extracts the preference, and large quantities are shipped to its military posts.

Robert P. Smith, Chillesburg, Va., writes: "As for Tutt's Pills I don't know how I could do without them. I have had the Liver disease over twenty years. Two years ago I got your pills. They have entirely cured me. I always keep them. My neighbors know I have them and send to me for them. They always speak in the highest terms of them."

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

Rev. Sylvanus Cobb thus writes in the Boston Christian Freeman:—We would by no means recommend any kind of medicine which we did not know to be good—particularly for infants. But of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup we can speak from knowledge; in our own family it has proved a blessing indeed, by giving an infant troubled with colic pains, quiet sleep, and the parents unbroken rest at night. Most parents can appreciate these blessings. Here is an article which works to perfection, and which is harmless; for the sleep which it affords the infant is perfectly natural, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." And duriug the process of teething, its value is incalculable. We have frequently heard mothers say that they would not be without it from the birth of the child till it had finished with the teething siege, on any consideration whatever.
